

Dear All,

As always, with all my activities in the education industry, I am happy to offer and introduce a new series of online teacher training events for English language teachers and specialists from all around the World. Two presentations of 45' each, two times in the same day so that everybody regardless of which time zone they are living in, can still attend and enjoy them. The Double Decker event will be offered every two months. The events are for free.

Meet the Trainers

Rachel Marie Paling founded Efficient Language Coaching in 2008 and created the method Neurolanguage Coaching® owning the registered trademark. Rachel started teaching English as a Foreign Language to adults over 30 years ago. After obtaining a BA Honours in Law and Spanish (with distinction in spoken Spanish) at the University of Sheffield (UK) she did a Masters in Human Rights and Democratization (EMA) at the University of Padua, Italy and Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Germany. She continued with her studies and qualified as a UK Lawyer in 2003, but instead of pursuing a career as a lawyer, she combined her teaching experience, her specialisation in business English and her legal knowledge to coach top executives across Europe. She has created the new method and approach called Neurolanguage Coaching® and has trained over 600 language teachers worldwide certifying them as Neurolanguage Coaches with her training course, one of the only language coaching certification courses in the world accredited by International Coach Federation USA. She now delivers this course to teachers of ANY discipline, to transform the educational process and in addition she works with corporates worldwide to enhance communication and cross-cultural performance within International Teams. She is a professional coach with the PCC Credential from the International Coaching Federation and also holds an MA in Applied Neuroscience.

Thom Jones has lived in more than a dozen countries and delivered training in over 70. Having been a truly useless student (and proving it frequently by failing all the exams he was set) he started his professional life as a waiter before going into teaching, then management, before going freelance. Formerly part of the senior executive at Embassy CES before becoming Director of Operations USA for Studygroup he returned to the UK to work with Trinity College London, before becoming principal of Oxford College summer programme and now works with a variety of organisations on a wide variety of projects. He now runs his own company: Brock Solutions Agency. He presents regularly around the world on a range of topics and is a guest lecturer at four universities. He is also a freelance trainer in business and management. He is a consultant for Gallery Teachers. Ten years ago, he cycled from the UK to Turkey, travelling through 11 countries. He has been lucky enough to travel widely in the Maghreb and loves it! He is a keen participant of EdYOUFest. He is rubbish at maths. His mother thinks he is great.
